

Technical Targeter & Analyst

Serve as an all-source intelligence analyst as part of a CNO intelligence team, focusing on the threat to networked weapons platforms and US and governmental agencies information networks. Conduct research and evaluate technical and all-source intelligence with specific emphasis on network operations and information warfare tactics, techniques, and procedures. Analyze and interpret network events to determine the impact on current operations. Conduct all-source research to determine adversary capability and intent. Develop concepts, approaches, and strategies to support governmental agencies tasked with conducting CNO with quality Intelligence Preparation of the Environment products. Design and produce high-quality papers and presentations and make recommendations for senior US government intelligence and network operations officials.

Basic Qualifications:

- 3 years of experience with Cyber Targeting, CNO, and/or intelligence analysis
- Experience and knowledge of cyber capabilities
- TS/SCI clearance with polygraph required
- BA or BS degree required

Additional Qualifications:

- Experience with gathering data, analyzing findings, and documenting results
- Experience with analyzing intelligence data and writing high-quality analytical reports, information papers, and briefings for senior-level government officials
- Knowledge of computer networking and Internet technology
- Knowledge of the US intelligence community and DoD
- Language Skills a plus

Clearance:

Applicants selected will be subject to a security investigation and may need to meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information; TS/SCI clearance with polygraph is required.

To apply, send a resume focused on the skill sets above to : patriotteam@patriotgroupinternational.com

IMPORTANT: In the subject line of the email, please type "Technical Targeter"